PRESIDENT'S UPDATE FEBRUARY 2012

For those of you that are not fans of winter, this is your year! I personally enjoy snow, so I'd like one more winter blast before the season is over. Speaking of the winter season, after a break in January, the Board met in earlier this February and I would like to update you on a few decisions.

First, NAPM-CM will be hosting the Affiliate Webcast in April. The webcast is the new name of the old Satellite Seminars. The webcasts are free and you can choose to watch them on your own home or work computer. Some members took advantage of watching the old Satellite Seminars, and this was another way for members to get together. Even though the new webcasts are only one hour, if you are interested, we will be offering the opportunity to view the webcast at MSU. Keep an eye out to register to view the webcast. The cost will be $10, which is used to cover parking and light refreshments.

Second, NAPM-CM has a library of DVD's from prior Satellite Seminars. We had offered to "rent" for free, the DVD's and some took advantage. We have quite the collection and with no real business address, and now that the seminars changed formats and are free, we are going to offer the DVD's to the membership. It will be a first come, first served basis. The list will be posted on the website. Let us know which DVD's you would like and we will mail them out to you.

Scholarship applications for the John H. Hoagland Scholarship are available. If you know of a full-time student, have them download the application and send one to us. The scholarship committee is being formed and the scholarship(s) will be presented to the winner at the May meeting.

Adam

Affiliate Webcasts (formerly Satellite Seminars)

The format and media have changed. These seminars are now provided streaming over the web. Members can sign up directly with ISM and view at their office if permitted with no charge. We will continue to put on the group setting for those who aren't able to view at the office, or who prefer the group setting. With the 1 hour format at 1:00 p.m. EST, we will be available early for brown bag lunch if you wish. Because it is our largest cost now, we will discontinue the individual mailing for these events. If you still wish to be notified, please either sign up for our newsletter online or send a request to napmcm@msu.edu. Either request can be sent there.
